Confession

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God. All may kneel.

All Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, spare thou those who confess their faults, restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord; and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Bishop or Officiant The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of The Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

Preces The people remain standing.

Officiant O Lord, open thou our lips.

Choir And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

O Lord, make speed to save us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.
Hymn 146

Sung by all, standing.

Ex more docti mystico

1. Now let us all with one accord,
2. The covenant, so long revealed,
3. Your love, O Christ, our sinful race,
4. Remember, Lord, though frail we be,
5. Therefore, we pray you, Lord, for give;

1. in company with ages past,
2. to those of faith in former time,
3. has not returned, but failed;
4. in your own image were we made;
5. so when our wards' rings here shall cease,

1. keep vigil with our heav'nly Lord
2. Christ by his own example sealed,
3. author of mercy, turn your face
4. help us, lest in anxiety,
5. we may with you forever live,

1. in his, the Lord of love, in love sublime.
2. and grant repentance for our pride.
3. we cause your Name to be betrayed.
4. in love and unity, and peace.

The Readings

The First Reading

A reading from the Book of Genesis.

God said to Noah and to his sons with him, “As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.” God said,
“This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

The Magnificat

Choir  My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden. For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations. He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Short Service

The Second Reading

Reader  A reading from the Gospel according to Mark.

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.” And the Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels waited on him. Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

The Nunc Dimittis

Choir  Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word; For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people, to be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Gibbons

The Sermon

The Rev. Mary Carter Greene
Minister for Congregational Life
The Apostles' Creed

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.

He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead.

The third day he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen.

The Prayers

The Lord be with you. Byrd

And with thy spirit. Choir

Let us pray. The people may kneel. Officiant

Lord have mercy upon us. Christ have mercy upon us. Lord have mercy upon us. Choir

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Suffrages

O Lord, show thy mercy upon us. Byrd

And grant us thy salvation.

O Lord, save this land.
And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
And make thy chosen people joyful.

O Lord, save thy people.
And bless thine inheritance.

Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

O God, make clean our hearts within us.
And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collects

Sung by the officiant.
Anthem

Sung by the choir. The people sit.

Trad. carol, arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams

Choir  O mortal man, remember well,
      When Christ our Lord was born,
    He was crucified between two thieves,
      And crowned with the thorn.

O mortal man, remember well,
      When Christ died on the rood,
    'Twas for our sins and wicked ways
      Christ shed his precious blood.

O mortal man, remember well,
      When Christ was wrapped in clay,
    He was taken to a sepulchre
      Where no man ever lay.

God bless your house, your children too,
      Your cattle and your store;
The Lord increase you day by day,
      And send you more and more.

- Trad. carol

PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH IN LENT
MARCH—APRIL 2022
We are holding a hybrid series of online and in-person classes during the 11 a.m. service for children, youth and families to journey through Lent. We have also created a beautiful series of short videos, Growing with Grace, and downloadable companion resources that explore Lent. Dedicated seating for groups with children is now available in the South Transept of the Cathedral. Visit our webpage for schedules, videos and resources, or email Steph at stephm@gracecathedral.org.

ORGAN RECITAL WITH CAROLYN CRAIG
SUNDAY, MARCH 6, AT 4 P.M.
Join us for a recital of works by Florence Price, Percy Whitlock, Louis Vierne and others performed by this rising star in the organ world. Carolyn Craig is a former organ scholar of Truro Cathedral and a student at the Yale Institute of Sacred Music.

SENIOR COMMUNITY DAY ON ZOOM (ONLINE)
TUESDAY, MARCH 8, AT 11 A.M.
Join us for our Senior Community Day on Zoom with special guest Charles Shipley! Charles will share stories about his 30-plus years serving as a verger at Grace Cathedral while also engaging in general conversation with our group. Join us for this very special occasion to celebrate Charles before he retires in April.

GRACE FORUM ONLINE WITH DANIEL DARLING
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, AT 6 P.M.
Join Dean Malcolm Clemens Young for a conversation with the former spokesperson for National Religious Broadcasters, who lost his job for writing about his decision to get vaccinated, about how to get back to connecting courage of conviction with civility.

2022 STEWARDSHIP
100% GRACE renewed in faith
Stewardship 2022

My grandmother taught me “save the pennies and the pounds will look after themselves.” If we come together as a community and each give what we can, all our pledges add up to make a huge difference and they enable the cathedral to plan ahead.
