

Community Treasure Swap

Sunday, April 28, 12:30-2:30 pm
The Chapter Room, Plaza, Grace Cathedral

What to bring

- Any treasure that you no longer need and think someone else may love:
  - We are collecting books, clothes, craft supplies, accessories, homewares and more
- Please bring things ready to be re-gifted:
  - Please wash preloved clothes
  - Please bring treasures that are complete (if part of a set), clean and in working order

When to bring it!

In advance:

- We are collecting items at the coffee hours after the 8:30 am and 11 am Eucharists every Sunday until April 21
- Email Steph McNally (address below) to arrange an alternative drop-off time

On the day:

- Bring items from 12 -12:30 pm to the Chapter Room, on the plaza of Grace Cathedral.

How the swap will work

- Our swap will take place during the Grace Cathedral Earth Fair, starting from 12:30 pm
- It will take place in the Chapter Room on the plaza and be signposted
- Further guidelines to ensure all participants can enjoy searching for treasures will be shared on the day; please email Steph for more information.
- Remaining items will be gifted to selected non-profits.

A few FAQs!

Who can participate?

- All are warmly invited to this community event. It is free to participate. We will put out a donation box for those who wish to make a contribution to future creation care projects at the Cathedral.

Why are you doing this?

- This fun event helps us do the serious work of keeping things out of landfill. We can make new connections as we care for the planet.

How else can I get involved in creation care work at Grace Cathedral?

- We will launch our new creation care ministry at the Treasure Swap. Sign up on the day or email Steph to learn more!
